To-day's League Games.
New York at Brooklyn.
Washington at Boston.
St. Louis at Pittsburgh.
Baltimore at Philadelphia.

Saturday's downpour prevented the second contest between the Superbas and Giants which was to have taken place at the Polo grounds, but unless rain again interferes the Greater New York rivals will have it out at Washington Park to-day. As the Bostoners are not far behind the Brooklyn in the chase for the pennant, Manager Hanlon wants every game he can get. The men are on their mettle and will strive to repeat last Friday's performance when they met the Giants to-day.

In their present form the Manhattan nine is not formidable, its place in the table, only two notches from last, emphasizing that an upheaval in the New Yorks is expected, and before long, it is reported, the Giants will be strengthened by a number of minor league players whom negotiations have been opened. Who these players are is not known, as Manager Hoer refuses to discuss the subject. But the Brooklyn players are something like likely to drop, and are wondering who the unfortunates will be.

Heds Beat Colonels and Browns.
Cincinnati, Aug. 6.—The Reds won both games of their double header with Louisville and St. Louis to-day. The team has now won ten straight games. Scores:

CINCINNATI LOUISVILLE.
